ONLY SEE M'NICHOL

And the Best Follows.

The cold rain chills the distant beach.
And bleak the winds blow far and wide.
The ground is sodden, damp beneath The chilling skies and foggy tide.
All are a zone, the pretty leaves Which lately sheltered many a nest;
The shocks are gathered and the sheaves!
The farmer sits him down to rest.
But whether shall the homestead try?
Where hideous death's door is past?
Their mellow notes are hushed at last.
And they, the 'lovely hapless band, Somebody's babies doomed to roam;
In all this great and plentiful land How can it be they have no home?
Because the father did not give His heart and mind to this intent:
He did not for the future live.
And cared not how his money went.
How different where with fruitful care
The father saves his daily peace.
And banks them in a bud, a chair-- His household gods--with common sense.
How easy for the prudent man To make an altar and a hearth.
With this, M'Nichol's, generous plan To make a home for all the earth.
By weekly payments you attain What else might take you all your life, Secure you from the horrors of rain,
And shelter little ones and wife!
Surely every man and woman living can see the advantage In buying what goes to make a home--on these most generous terms. It would be folly and wrong done to your child not to surround them with the comforts dear to children when it costs so little. And involves only the saving of a few weeks' sum. No better bank exists. You save money while using it. Do not delay to see

DOM PEDRO GONE.

His Departure From Brazil Announced by Da Fonseca.

REMOVAL OF A FIGHT FOR HIS RESTORATION
COME FROM HAMBURG.

The President of the New Ministry Says He Will Remain in Charge of the Helm--The Republic Proclaimed in All the Provinces --An Organized Effort to Convert the Prince of Wales and His Son to Christianity--Foreign News.

RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 19.--The Republic has been proclaimed in all the provinces.

Dom Pedro's Departure Announced.

LONDON, Nov. 19.--A dispatch from Rio Janeiro this morning states that Senor Da Fonseca, President of the new Ministry, has formally announced the departure of Dom Pedro for Lisbon.

Senor Da Fonseca also announces that he will continue to exercise supreme executive authority until the country shall have definitely decided upon a new government.
Meanwhile the ordinary functions of administration will continue as under the old regime.

BRAZILIAN SECURITIES FIRMER.

The dispatches of yesterday had a reassuring effect in financial circles. Brazilian securities on the London Stock Exchange to-day recovered much of the ground lost yesterday and are quoted from two to three points higher than last night's closing prices. The feeling prevails that the change of government will not injuriously affect Brazilian financial obligations.

THESE MAY BE TROUBLE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.--Charles R. Flint, who arrived here from Washington this morning, where he had been attending the session of Congress, received two cablegrams from Brazil this morning. One was from a merchant house at Para, and stated that "exchange advanced from 27 1/4 to 27 3/4. Brazil tranquil. Revolution may cause trouble later on."

The other cable was from Rio and confirmed the published report about the departure of the Imperial family and the proclamation of the Republic. This cable also stated that the present government would carry out all the obligations of the Imperial Government, and that there was likely to be a peaceful solution of all difficulties.

Fighting in Rio Janeiro.

PARIS, Nov. 19.--The Figaro says that merchants in Hamburg have received dispatches from Rio Janeiro stating that a movement had been started in that city for the restoration of Dom Pedro, and that fighting has occurred in the streets between the Monarchists and Republicans.

A Presbyterian Minister's Views.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 19.--Rev. George Chamberlain, a Presbyterian minister, who has been in Brazil for some time, and who with Quintino Bocayura and Ruy Barbosa, two members of the Republican Cabinet, said to-day that the change could not be regarded as a revolution as the propaganda had been going on for a long time. He said it had finally taken form at this moment because the Emperor's end is near and the people stand in great dread of Princess Isabel and her husband, who are regarded as being thoroughly and the domination of the Pope. When the government recently passed a liberal bill for free religion Isabel presented a petition signed by 1,000 Catholic women against the passage of the bill, and by this action, increased tenfold the opposition to her. The Prince, Dr. Rio, Dr.
Chamberlain said, had been very bitter against Isabel and the Catholic party. When the Pope bestowed upon the Regent Isabel the decoration of the Golden Rose, in acknowledge of her act treating the slaves, a Rio paper warned her editorially to return the decoration, reminding her that its bestowal on former occasions on Queen Isabel and Empress Josephine had preceded the loss of their thrones. Dr. Chamberlain said that Bocayura was one of the most popular writers in Brazil, and for five years had been an open propagandist of rebellion against the empire.
He was personally a free thinker, but an opponent of religion, advocating religious liberty. Barbosa was also a popular journalist who had in the past refused to accept a position under the empire. When asked whether the people of Brazil were prepared for self government, Dr. Chamberlain said they came to the conclusion that they had to begin some time. He did not think there would be any trouble at all, the Emperor having accepted the Republic as a fact.

WILL CONVERT THE PRINCE.

An Organized Movement for the Conversion of London Fashionables.

LONDON, Nov. 19.--An evangelistic movement of a very unusual character is attracting some attention in London just now. Efforts have repeatedly been made to increase Christian influence in the great East End and innumerable societies have been formed with that object in view. The present movement, however, seeks its field of labor at the other and fashionable end of London. In other words, a society of good people has been formed, the avowed purpose of which is to seek the conversion of the people of the West End. The plan adopted is the furtherance of this purpose by the members or agents of the society is to make personal visits upon people in the West End and seek by direct intercourse to interest them in religion. It is asserted that all the houses in fashionable London, including Marlborough House, the residence of the Prince of Wales, will be visited in this way.

MORE FROM SIR HENRY JAMES.

LONDON, Nov. 19.--Sir Henry James has continued his speech in behalf of the "Times" before the Russell Commission to-day. He declared that a large amount of the vast sum which had been received from the sale of the National movement had not been accounted for, and this gave scope for evil doing.
For the money, Sir Henry said, had been used to defend prisoners other than those charged with agrarian crimes.

A FIRE ON SHIPBOARD.

LONDON, Nov. 19.--A fire broke out in the forehold of the British steamer Ocean King, Capt. Gould, at Southampton from New Zealand. The hold was flooded and the ship quarantined.

BLACKMAILING JOURNAL.

LONDON, Nov. 19.--The Grand jury has returned a true bill against Claude Marks and Edwin Wolfe, joint proprietors of the "Morning Record" and Mr. Marks of the "Financial Times" for blackmail. The indictment grew out of an alleged attempt by the accused to obtain large sums of money for the suppression of articles affecting a gold mining company.

JUSTICE.

LONDON, Nov. 19.--While on his way to court this morning, Justice Day of the Russell Commission, was knocked down by a cab and slightly injured. He proceeded to the courtroom, however, and took his place on the bench.

CENTRAL PROPERTY SOLD

TWO OLD LAND MARKS TO BE IMPROVED BY NEW OWNERS.

Messrs. T. S. Noonan, W. F. Hill, Hugh L. Fox and George E. Leighton All Make Heavy Purchases—Adding Two Stories to the Southern Hotel, Noonan and Hill have purchased at Ninth and Washington Avenues—Other Realty Matters.

Two valuable down-town business corners and a piece of inside Olive street property, west of Tenth, were sold yesterday and each of the sites is to be improved by the purchasers.

Not the least important of these transactions was consummated by Adam Roock & Co. in the sale of the northeast corner of Chestnut and Tenth streets for $35,000 to Mr. Thomas S. Noonan and Mr. W. F. Hill, the banker. This is one of the oldest business corners in what may be called the commercial center. It has a frontage of 60 feet on Chestnut street by a depth of 100 on Tenth street, and was owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Hager of San Francisco, who acquired the property in the division of the estate of her father, James D. Lucas. Originally the corner was a foundry site. Later it was used for gospel meetings and later still as a show place of the canvas tent order. Now it is occupied by a second-hand building-material firm.

Mr. Noonan owns the opposite corner with the houses upon it fronting 94 feet on Chestnut by a depth of 100 on Tenth, which he bought last December for $30,000. He now has it ready for rebuilding the place on the north-west corner. Mr. Hill became interested with him in the purchase. In April, 1887, Mr. Jay Gould paid $500 a foot, $35,000 for the northwest corner of Chestnut and Tenth streets, which was sold recently to Mr. Daniel Catlin for $30,000 after Gould had torn the building away. These transactions indicated the activity and enhancing value of Chestnut street property. Messrs. Noonan and Hill have plans now ready to improve their purchase forthwith by the construction of a building having four stories on Chestnut and four on Tenth street, with offices above. Later on, some time next spring, Mr. Noonan intends to erect a similar improvement on his corner opposite.

Another corner, the one at the northeast corner of Market and Eighth streets, where the old kindling-wood yard is, was bought from Mr. Joseph D. Lucas for $35,000 by Mr. Hugh L. Fox, who is going to improve the place with a four-story building for his railway supply business. The corner he has purchased from Mr. George Dunham & Co. by a depth of 100 on Eighth, the price paid being $500 a foot for the whole lot. Mr. Fox built the structure at the southwest corner of Ninth and St. Charles, occupied by Brown, Dunham & Co., who formerly located there himself, but when the new building was commenced he moved into rented apartments, where he will do business until his new house on Market street is finished.

The Olive street property sold is the old two-story house on the west side, numbered 1009, now occupied as a drug and laundry establishment. The place has a frontage of 24 1/2 feet and was bought for $20,000 by Mr. John B. McDonald. Thomas S. Noonan represented the grantor in this transaction. Mr. McDonald is going to improve his purchase with a four-story business house. Some of the best improvements on Washington avenue are being made by him. It is only last March that Mr. Leighton and Mr. J. G. Chapman paid Thomas Walsh $100,000 for the two business houses numbered 50 and 51 Olive street.

OTHER SALES.
Mr. Joseph D. Lucas has perfected a sale of the premises No. 811 Market street, for $3,200, to the Tobin Bros., the painters. The property consists of a 2,200-foot lot with an old three-story brick building upon it.

Mr. Thomas S. Noonan is going to sell the old Dibble property, fronting 53 1/2 feet on the southwest corner of Jefferson avenue and Tenth street, where he will do business for $3,800, to the Beaumont College.

Also that of a 2,125-foot lot on the north side of Sherman street, between Virginia and St. Louis, for $27,500, to Mr. Virginia S. Peunget to Mrs. Maggie A. McCellan.

The firm of Green & La Motte perfected the sale of the old St. Kevin's church property for $2,500, to Mr. Albert G. Brown, who is going to improve the site with dwellings. It is situated at the corner of Park and Compton streets, with a frontage of 130 feet on Rutgers by a depth of 120 on Compton. There is an old building upon the premises which the congregation abandoned when they left their old frame church for their elegant new one on Park and Compton streets.

ADDITION TWO MORE STORIES TO THE SHERMAN HOTEL.

The Southern Hotel management, in view of the continually crowded condition of the establishment, is considering a proposition to add two more stories to the fire-proof structure, and are determined now to carry out the enterprise. It is an old building upon the corner of Fair in St. Louis. When this improvement has been made the Southern will be a grand old hotel, through which four-horse omnibuses may be driven from street to street over the block it occupies, with the grandest hotel structure in the world. The building is now six stories high.

THE HOTEL AT NINTH STREET AND WASHINGTON AVENUE.

The project of building an immense hotel and theater fronting 120 feet on Washington avenue and extending through the block to St. Charles street at the southeast corner of Ninth, has practically been abandoned for want of local financial assistance. It was originally intended and agreed that Philadelphia capitalists should put $300,000 into the enterprise, providing that another $100,000 was subscribed for the improvements by St. Louis parties. As only $20,000 of this local purse has been raised, and other prospective interested parties do not aid the enterprise, the probabilities are that the original plan will not be carried out. In the event that it is abandoned, however, an eight-story fire proof European hotel structure is to be erected upon the fifty feet at the corner. This improvement it is estimated will cost $150,000, and the money is to be furnished by Philadelphia capitalists.

The Wagon Tire Bill.

The wagon makers and teamsters held an adjourned meeting at Central Turner Hall, last evening. There were present about twenty-five interested persons, with A. Wackman as Chairman and Jacob Walter as Secretary. Messrs. Bodie, O'Brien, Heng, Dugan, Crevelin, Carmichael and Wright were appointed a committee to urge the passage of the bill relating to wagon tires, now before the House Committee on Police. Those present also agreed to attend the meetings of the House of Delegates, and aid in pushing the bill through.

A REAL NICE YOUNG MAN.

V. J. Holtzman Trusts a Traveling Companion and Loss $250.

V. J. Holtzman of 918 Mount street, this city, regrets the loss of a well-filled pocket-book containing $250, and has lost all confidence in his fellow man's honesty. Last week he decided to pay a visit to his aged parents living in Philadelphia, Pa., and last Wednesday night left on the Vandavia train. The chair car was crowded and the only seat he could find was beside a nicely dressed, innocent-looking young man. Holtzman got on a speaking acquaintance with him before the train left the Union Depot and when he reached St. Louis was quite intimate with him. Holtzman reached the city at the Relay Depot in East St. Louis. Holtzman asked the young man if he would not step out with him to his home. The young man declined, but said he would hold the seats if Holtzman wanted a drink until he returned. Holtzman went outside for a few moments and when he returned he found the seat vacant where the young man had been sitting. He thought the young man had gone out to look for him, perhaps, and he would wait. He thought the young man had left his house he had put his wallet containing $250, in the inside pocket of his overcoat. Holtzman reached for the back of his coat to get it out. He searched all the pockets but the wallet was in neither of them. He thought the young man had taken it, perhaps, while he went out and would return. They pulled out and the young man returned and Holtzman asked him if he had taken it, perhaps, while he went out and would return. ## AN OLD RAILROAD TRICK.

A $100,000 ROAD COVERED WITH $55,000,000 STOCKS AND BONDS.

Kansas Municipalities That Made Donations Object to Foreclosure Under the Bond Indebtedness—Burning Philadelphia & Reading Condemned Cars—The Wabash in Trouble—Stockholders Will Kick-News of the Rail.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 19.—Chairman R. W. Griggs of Meade, Kan., of the committee appointed by the convention of the Kansas Municipalities to resist the foreclosure of the mortgage on the Chicago, Kansas & Nebraska Railway, the western extension of the Rock Island, has issued a circular calling a meeting of the attorneys for November 22 next at Topeka, Kan. The circular states that the municipal subscriptions to the stock were loaned, not gifts. One thousand miles of roadbed were constructed, says Mr. Griggs, at a cost not exceeding $10,000,000. The capital stock issued by the company was $30,000,000. First mortgage bonds to the amount of $25,149,000 were assigned to the Metropolitan Trust Co. Thus $35,149,000 has been realized by the company from the sale of stocks and bonds. Deducting from this the $10,000,000 cost of construction, where, asks Mr. Griggs, will the remaining $45,149,000 go? It ought to go towards the payment of the company's debts, he says, but fears it is to be criminally converted into the coffers of the Rock Island or into the pockets of the officers of the Chicago, Kansas & Nebraska.

Stockholders Kicking.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Some of the stockholders in the Erie Railroad, particularly those interested in the N. Y. & E. O. road or New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio, which the Erie has leased since May 1, 1888, according to the Herald of this morning have found a good deal of fault with the management of the company from time to time, and it is probable that their dissatisfaction will be strongly expressed at the stockholders' annual meeting on Tuesday next in the form of opposition to the election to the Presidency of Ohio factors, who are principally English investors, says that Mr. King does not treat them fairly and that he constructs the terms of the lease for the benefit of the Erie. The rental of this document provides for 32 percent of the gross earnings up to $5,000,000. This is increased by the tenth of 1 percent on each $100,000 of gross earnings above $5,000,000 until $7,500,000 is reached. When the rental reaches a specified sum of $1,750,000 to be paid yearly, then the deficit is to be made up, without interest, out of the excess in any subsequent year. The proposition is understood, has been made to Thomas F. Flower, President of the New York, Ontario & Western, that he consent to allow his name to be used as a candidate for the position now held by Mr. King. Mr. Flower was called upon by stockholders of the Erie, who tried their best to obtain his consent, but he seems to have given them no definite reply. He said that he was not anxious for the place. The stockholders urged that he had made such a brilliant success of the management of the Ontario & Western that he was more entitled for the post than any man of whom they could think, and ended by asking him to consider the matter more fully before declining their proffered suffrage.

The revolution in Brazil is merely a tempest in the coffee pot to the rest of the world.

BURKS has made a bad job of the grain inspection, but he is the very kind of man to meet the Governor's views as a Recorder of Voters.

CHIEF GRAIN INSPECTOR BURKS may not be a grain expert, but he has performed the operation of har-kari upon himself with neatness and dispatch.

TO THE remark of a notorious lottery agent, "the police are not going to bother us any," may be added "and if they do the Court of Criminal Correction will not punish us."

BURKS has let the grain inspection slip through his fingers, as easily as any man, may be added "and if they do the Court of Criminal Correction will
not punish us."

The railroads and the Mississippi and its tributaries connect St. Louis with every part of the globe. St. Louis is also the center of the largest population in this country. No better place could be found for the World's Fair.

THERE is only one course open to the Board of Public Improvements with reference to the charges made by ex-Guard WALKER against Supt. CARROLL of the Work-house. That is to investigate them.
The charges should be substantiated or proven false.

Chicago's big, beautiful bluff about not wanting any financial aid from Congress in getting up the World's Fair is petering out. The Chicago newspapers are taking $3,000,000 off the guarantee fund and declare that Chicago wants from Congress should the Exposition be located there, exactly what any other city would want.

The veteran lottery agent, BOBBY KERR, speaks with wisdom gained by the experience of years when he says, referring to the efforts made to enforce the law against lottery, "they'll get tired and quit." This is doubtless a sagacious observation to apply to the Police Commissioners, but Mr. KERR is in error when he thinks that the POST-DISPATCH will get tired and quit. The POST-DISPATCH enlisted for the war and proposes to remain until the end.

BECAUSE violations of the lottery have not been stopped is no proof that the law is not sufficient. They will not be stopped until all law-breaking lottery agents have been arrested and the court has indicted upon them the full penalty under the law.
Then they will be stopped at once. The responsibility rests with the police and the courts.

The police officials are undoubtedly right in laying part of the blame for the failure to enforce the anti-gambling laws on the court officials. The continuance, the nolle pro, the ignored bail-bond and the other evasions of justice disgrace our criminal record. We have given one or two chapters in the scandalous history of this matter and we propose to tell the whole story.

It must be confessed that the boldness of the local lottery agents in continuing their business despite the apparent activity of the police is warranted by their past experience. Arrest has hitherto signified only a little trouble. And in exceedingly rare cases a light fine. When it comes to mean severe punishment their boldness will forsake them.

The trials of the naturalization fraud cases, one of which has opened in the Federal Court, will be watched with deep interest by citizens of St. Louis. They will prove conclusively whether there is justice for the criminals who attacked the rights of the people through the ballot-box last fall. The United States District Attorney cannot over-estimate the importance of the cases.

Nor the least noble act of the late Emperor of Brazil was the yielding of his throne without an effort to retain it. He bowed to the will of the people with calm dignity when he might have precipitated a war for his own selfish interests. DOM PEDRO was doubtless the best Republican in Brazil and did more in his career as Emperor to build up a peaceful Republic than any of his subjects.

The letters of Mr. JOHN E. MCGATH describing the journey and experiences of the Government surveying party in Alaska, published in yesterday's Post-Dispatch, were full of interesting information. They gave the first news of the progress of that important expedition, and probably the last news for many months as the party is now in the unexplored wilds of the territory. Naturally the news reached the public through the POST-DISPATCH.

It was easier to depose and exile DOM PEDRO and his family than it will be to put a man as wise, as patriotic and as popular in the chief magistracy. Even those who depose him had no quarrel with him personally, and they must be aware that his early recall would naturally result from their failure to satisfy the people by establishing immediately an orderly and peaceful republic unstained by dictatorship or civil war.

The decision of Justice WORTHEN of Kansas City that the Newberry law does not apply to hotels is the first step towards the nullification of that measure.
Should the decision hold the few saloon-keepers who may be unable to have the name hotel applied to their places will doubtless be relieved from the penalty of the law through an appeal to the popular sentiment against discrimination. Every test of summary legislation in this country has proved it neither popular nor effective.

The fight that dawned FORAKER in Ohio was made for local self-government and against the control of city affairs by the Governor's staff of party henchmen and boodle-hunting politicians. The disgust with which St. Louis people look upon the mess the Jefferson City machine has made of our grain inspection, and is making of our police laws generally, is a home specimen of the feeling that beat FORAKER in Ohio. If the Democrats desire to keep their hold on Missouri they should keep their State officers' hands off St. Louis business and out of city affairs and city politics.

ALLEN O. MYERS of Cincinnati, who created a sensation by resigning a position in the Enquirer office and denouncing the corrupt millionaire element in the Democratic party of his State, has added to the sensation by announcing his intention of sending one or more of Ohio's millionaires to the penitentiary. There is a suspicion that the person or persons to whom Mr.
MYERS refers may be candidates for the United States Senate and he may do excellent public service by making haste to execute his purpose. Indications are thickening that boodle will not win the Ohio senatorial contest this year.

The result of placing a political trickster and chronic office-seeker in the office of Chief Grain Inspector is even worse than was anticipated. The law has fallen into disrepute and is threatened with miserable failure. The Chief Grain Inspector by injecting political trickery into an important business office has gained the contempt of all interested in the office, and the bitter opposition also of the politicians. The Railroad Commissioners will have an unpleasant reckoning with the people for their abuse of the power conferred upon them by the grain inspection law.

NOTHING DONE YET.

The Police Have Asked for No

There is method in the inactivity of the police authorities.
Four days have passed since a weekly sheet printed an advertisement of a lottery; four days have passed since a daily alleged newspaper printed an advertisement of a lottery, and it was followed the next day by a two-column account of the drawings, with directions for holders of tickets; yet for the pseudo editors of these papers not a solitary warrant has been issued. The authorities have made no attempt to secure the arrest of offenders. At least one hundred of so-called newspapers have been purchased, but no use has been made of them and no warrants have been applied for.
The method which the authorities are observing is designed to keep the police from knowing that they were driven to doing their duty by outraged public sentiment and by the POST-DISPATCH. Their pride is wounded, and because it is they neglect their duty and permit crime to go unpunished rather than seem to make arrests at the bidding of the public. For two years they have steady-ly neglected the violations of the lottery law and permitted the sale of prize tickets and violation of the law. Their inactivity and negligence of duty that mocked the service aroused public sentiment and the police were forced to act.

Detective Moberly now has charge of this work, and the chief does not even know what he is doing. He was asked this morning if warrants had been applied for and his reply was:

"I do not know. I have been out nearly all morning."
One of the alleged editors has been arrested by the Federal authorities for printing an abominably lewd and vulgar rhyme in the pages of a newspaper. The police have not arrested him, but the police have not arrested him for the offense which comes under their supervision. They have invested 10 cents in the purchase of two copies of the sheet. They have the evidence and there is no reason why they should not swear out the warrants.

THE POLICE HAVE POSITIVE EVIDENCE of three crimes committed by two pseudo editors. The evidence is in the hands of the police, but up to a late hour this afternoon they had not applied for a single warrant.
Detective Moberly, who is now hearing a part of the burden the Commissioners placed on Chief Burks' shoulders, was asked what he was doing about the evidence in his hands.
His reply was:

"I have charge of that work," he said, "and I am waiting for the evidence. Men have been assigned to the different cases. They are working on them now."
"Yes, we are working on their cases, too," said about the men who advertise lotteries.

"Two men have been specially assigned to investigate the evidence in the hands of the police. They have secured evidence, but they have not asked for warrants or made any arrests."
The police are pleading as a fresh excuse, and not without some justification, that the evidence is not in their hands. They have not been able to secure the evidence, but they have not been able to secure the evidence, but they have not been able to secure the evidence, but they have not been able to secure the evidence, but they have not been able to secure the
